Warning about Suspicious Emails from Those Purporting to Be Executives of SB Energy Corp.

Certain suspicious emails sent by people purporting to be executives of SB Energy Corp. looking for renewable energy business partners in North America and other regions have come to our attention.

SB Energy Corp. officials never ask those whom they are unacquainted with to provide personal information and our company is in no way connected to these emails. Should you come across suspicious emails aiming to collect personal information, please ignore them and do not provide personal information, such as your name or email address.
